

To whom it may concern with the FCC. I am writing to request that you do not make changes to Wisconsin's no call list policy. Receiving phone calls from solicitors interferes with my family and down time after a long days work. I am not likely to purchase services or goods from someone who solicits me over the phone or door to door. Thank you for your time.